12. [REDACTED] In response to her earlier call, I talked to Karin Lissakers, Research Assistant, Subcommittee on Multinational Corporations, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, about her request for a briefing on the military implications of the American and Japanese participation in natural resource programs in the Soviet Union. In brief, I told Miss Lissakers that in view of the economic briefing the staff had received, the present question was not relevant.

13. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] EA Division, reviewed the various portions of the My Lai investigation transcript of the hearings of the My Lai Subcommittee of the Special Subcommittee on Armed Services Investigating, House Armed Services Committee, which had been marked by the Counsel, John Lally, and Colonel Guinn, OSD, as relating CIA interest. In particular, the interviews of Ambassador William E. Colby by the Subcommittee in Saigon had been noted for our review. No corrections or deletions were necessary, with the exception of one portion in Mr. Colby's testimony that identified two individuals who are still on active assignment. Mr. Lally was thanked for his consideration.
